Published Research Update November 2017- March 2018

Question 1: Why do children still die from asthma?

AMH Gana, DA Fitzgerald - Paediatric Respiratory Reviews, 2018

... These should be preventable with better education of families, oversight of medication adherence and improved communication between health care ... were identified in 55% of cases, which included 25% of patients who had had notification to child protection services within the ...

Perinatal Loss and Birth of a Subsequent Child

L Ramos - 2018

... Perinatal Loss and Birth of a Subsequent Child. The purpose of this study is to evaluate the influence of previous perinatal loss on mothers' emotional distress during the birth of a subsequent healthy infant. Perinatal loss includes fetal death (early or late) or neonatal death within ...

American Child Mortality, Low-Weight Births

D Wallace, R Wallace - Right-to-Work Laws and the Crumbling of American ..., 2018

... 1–4. 7.65 per 100,000. 814. 5–9. 2.65 per 100,000. 814. 10–14. 3.35 per 100,000. 1030. Total. 3661. Thus, over 3600 families suffered the death of a child annually that would have been avoided if the RTW states had child mortality rates as low as those of the non-RTW states ...

A Call for Eminence Obstetrics Care by Way of “Neonatal Near Miss” Events (NNM): A Hospital-Based Case-Control Study

BD Shroff, NH Ninama - The Journal of Obstetrics and Gynecology of India, 2018

... Currently, child death review is done by either community-based child death review (CBCDR) or facility-based child death review (FBCDR) ... We recommend the incorporation of near miss events into the confidential enquiry system existing for child death review ...

[HTML] How many lives are at stake? Assessing 2030 sustainable development goal trajectories for maternal and child health

JW McArthur, K Rasmussen, G Yamey - BMJ, 2018

... For example, in 2015, acute lower respiratory infection was the number one cause of child death in seven of the 10 countries with the highest mortality (Nigeria, DR Congo, Somalia, Chad, Sudan, Niger, Benin); malaria was the lead cause in two countries (Mali and Ivory Coast ...
... decision regarding end-of-life care? Caeymaex et al. found that in decisions to withdraw or withhold treatment, parental perception of a shared decision is associated with a lower grief score years after the child's death (18).

Illness Severity Predicts Death and Brain Injury in Asphyxiated Newborns Treated with Hypothermia

H Wang, M Beltempo, E Rampakakis, PN Sanon... - American Journal of Obstetrics and Gynecology, 2018

... Illness Severity Predicts Death and Brain Injury in Asphyxiated Newborns Treated with Hypothermia. Scholar Career Award Junior 2, and the New Investigator Research Grant from the SickKids Foundation and the CIHR Institute of Human Development, Child and Youth Health ...

Bullying and Suicidality in Children and Adolescents Without Predisposing Factors: A Systematic Review and Meta-analysis

GN Katsaras, EK Vouloumanou, G Kourlaba, E Kyritsi... - Adolescent Research, 2018

... and/or cyber bullying and the presence of suicidal ideation and/or suicide attempts in either children or adolescents ... involving subpopulations with specific characteristics that could be regarded as possible confounding factors, including psychiatric patients, prisoners or sexual ...

Supporting the family left behind—Loss of a child to congenital heart disease

L Kitzmiller, AM Kline-Tilford - Progress in Pediatric Cardiology, 2018

... In the same study, despite requiring aggressive supportive therapies, realization that their child had no chance for survival did not occur until very near to the death, with a median of 2 days prior to the child's death [3]. Some parents did not realize that their child did not have a ...

Learning From National and State Trends in Sudden Unexpected Infant Death

R Carlin, RY Moon - Pediatrics, 2018

... Happy 70th Birthday, Pediatrics! See top articles, and what has and has not changed over the years. Advertising Disclaimer ». Tools and Links. Pediatrics. February 2018. Learning From National and State Trends in Sudden Unexpected Infant Death ... unexpected infant death ...

Death caused by appendicular knotting and small-bowel strangulation in a child: A case report and review

A Rodriguez Zorro, JH Vivas Diaz - Medicine, Science and the Law, 2018
Acute appendicitis is one of the most common surgical emergencies in paediatrics. However, acute appendicitis in early infancy is an uncommon condition. Furthermore, strangulation of the small intestine through appendicular knotting is described as very

National and State Trends in Sudden Unexpected Infant Death: 1990-2015

ABE Lambert, SE Parks, CK Shapiro-Mendoza - Pediatrics, 2018

NACCHO Aboriginal Children’s Health Research

NACCHO Aboriginal Children’s Health Research #ClosingTheGap @Mayi_Kuwayu

Are we really on track to halve the gap in mortality rates for Indigenous children under five within a decade?

[HTML] Brain Death in Children: Incidence, Donation Rates, and the Occurrence of Central Diabetes Insipidus

N Yener, MŞ Paksu, Ö Köksoy - The Journal of Critical Care Medicine, 2018

Pediatric Medicine—Postmortem Imaging in Suspected Child Abuse

M van Wijk, MEM Vester, OJ Arthurs, RR van Rijn - Human Remains: Another..., 2017

... Besides the long-term outcomes there are also short-term adverse outcomes, the most severe of these is death of the victim as a result of trauma and/or neglect. A special category of fatal child abuse is neonaticide, defined as the killing of a child during the first 24 h of life ...

Gastrointestinal causes of sudden unexpected death: A review

RG Menezes, S Ahmed, SB Pasha, SA Hussain... - Medicine, Science and the ..., 2017

Gastrointestinal conditions are a less common cause of sudden unexpected death when compared to other conditions such as cardiovascular conditions, but they are...

[PDF] Epidemiology of Sudden Unexpected Death in Infancy: Evidence from the London Metropolitan Police Project Indigo Investigation

DT Mage, EM Donner - J Paediatr Neonatal Dis, 2017

Table 3: \textbf{Death}-risk and survival factors of \textit{child} submersion victims on admission to the PICU. Variable N Category \textit{p}-value OR CI95% Age 42 numeric variable 0.1837 1.157 0.933-1.435 Gender 42 female x male 0.2768 2.060 0.560-7.577

\textbf{Postmortem Micro-Computed Tomography (micro-CT) Scanning of a Fetal Heart: A New Protocol for Determining Cause and Manner of Fetal Death}

L Tattoli, G Botta, CM Lombardi, V Zambelli, G Di Vella - 69th Annual Scientific …, 2017

... these cases. Fetal and pediatric cardiac autopsies play a crucial role in the counseling of parents in regard to both the cause of \textit{death} of their fetus or \textit{child} and the implications of such findings for future pregnancies. They also ...

\textbf{Ethics Rounds: Death After Pediatric Dental Anesthesia: An Avoidable Tragedy?}

H Lee, P Milgrom, CE Huebner, P Weinstein, W Burke… - Pediatrics, 2017

... Paramedics initiate cardiopulmonary resuscitation, but the \textit{child} is pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital. ... This unnecessary \textit{death} has resulted from a failure of the dentist to follow the current standard of pediatric dental care. ...

\textbf{Risk and Resilience Factors Related to Parental Bereavement Following the Death of a Child with a Life-Limiting Condition}

T Jaaniste, S Coombs, TJ Donnelly, N Kelk, D Beston - Children, 2017

Abstract This paper reviews the theoretical and empirical literature on risk and resilience factors impacting on parental bereavement outcomes following the \textit{death} of a \textit{child} with a life-limiting condition. Over the past few decades, bereavement research has focussed primarily...

\textbf{Whose Fault Is It Anyway? Guilt, Blame, and Death Attribution by Mothers After Stillbirth or Infant Death}

KJ Gold, A Sen, I Leon - Illness, Crisis & Loss, 2017

Parents who experience stillbirth or infant death often struggle with postpartum guilt. This may be an adaptive response or can become chronic and maladaptive. ...

\textbf{A Matter of Life and Death: Understanding Continuing Bonds and Post-traumatic Growth When Young Adults Experience the Loss of a Close Friend}

Abstract Young adults establish networks of friends for companionship, support, assistance, and resource exchange. Friends have been found to play an essential role in promoting young adults' health and well-being. Yet, relatively little is known about how young adults ...

\textbf{False-Positive Diagnosis of Brain Death Following the Pediatric Guidelines: Case Report and Discussion}
A 2-year-old boy with severe head trauma was diagnosed brain dead according to the 2011 Pediatric Guidelines. Computed tomographic (CT) scan showed massive cerebral edema with herniation. Intracranial pressures were extremely high, with cerebral perfusion

The effects of parenting a child diagnosed with cancer: distress, resilience and vital exhaustion. Living with death in your face

Study I Aim. Studies of parental reactions to a child's cancer have traditionally been carried out within the framework of psychiatry and psychopathology. We studied the significance of individual resource factors strengthening parents' resilience to long-term cancer-related

Pregnancy associated death in record linkage studies relative to delivery, termination of pregnancy, and natural losses: A systematic review with a narrative synthesis …

Objectives: Measures of pregnancy associated deaths provide important guidance for public health initiatives. Record linkage studies have significantly improved...

Spatial variation in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women’s access to 4 types of maternal health services

This report examines spatial variation in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women's access to hospitals with public birthing units and 3 other types of maternal health services. It also investigates possible high-level associations between access, maternal risk factors and birth outcomes.

Download report: Spatial variation in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women’s access to 4 types of maternal health services

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health Performance Framework 2017 report: Australian Capital Territory

Download report: Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health Performance Framework 2017 report: Australian Capital Territory

Substance using Mothers Experiencing Suicidal Thoughts: Impact of Parenting Behaviors on Child Behavior Problems

Umbilical cord entanglement's frequency and its impact on the newborn
No adverse perinatal outcome was recorded in this constellation. There was no child death regarding the first 24 h, and no mother experienced a syncope while giving birth. We can conclude that a nuchal cord is not associated with adverse perinatal outcome …

Predictors of death in infants with probable serious bacterial infection

A Arora, B Rath, H Sommerfelt, J Chandra, M Kumari… - Pediatric Research, 2017

Choosing to Care for Children Who Might Die: Conversations with Pediatric Residents

AEC Brown - Perspectives in Biology and Medicine, 2017

[PDF] A Retrospective Review of Resuscitation Planning at 2 a Children's Hospital 3

J Kelly, J Ritchie, L Donovan, C Graham, A Herbert - 2017

… Figure 3. Location of child at time of death and referral to palliative care (53 patients) 140 home medical ward ICU/HDU 0 5 … The time from the documentation of a RP to the child's death ranged from less than 24 hours to 143 over 1 year and was on average 51 days (SD = 101) …

Report: Life expectancy and potentially avoidable deaths in 2013-2015

This report presents information on life expectancy and potentially avoidable deaths in 2013-2015 across Australia, by Primary Health Network and smaller local areas (SA3). Key facts from this report include: * In Australia, life expectancy at birth was 82.4 years in 2013-2015, up from 82.1 years in 2011-2013. * The age-standardised rate of potentially avoidable deaths was 108 per 100,000 people in 2013-2015, down from 117 per 100,000 people in 2009–011.

Click on the link to view the media release: Life expectancy varies by where you live

Life-Sustaining Treatment Status at the Time of Death in a Japanese Pediatric Intensive Care Unit

F Suzuki, M Takeuchi, K Tachibana, K Isaka, Y Inata… - American Journal of ..., 2017

Background: Substantial variability exists among countries regarding the modes of death in pediatric intensive care units (PICUs). However, there is limited inf...

A Metasynthesis: Uncovering What Is Known About the Experiences of Families With Children Who Have Life-limiting and Life-threatening Illnesses

JMG Bally, NR Smith, L Holtslander, V Duncan… - Journal of Pediatric Nursing, 2018
Parents’ experiences are described as a dual reality in which fighting for survival and recognizing the threat of their child’s death were daily challenges. • Parental hope is critical to their experience and supports caregiving. • …

Bereaved Parents’ Health Status During the First 6 Months After Their Child’s Death

N Dias, D Brandon, JE Haase, P Tanabe - American Journal of Hospice and Palliative …, 2017

Purpose: To examine bereaved parents' physical, mental, and social health during the first 6 months after their child's (< 12 years) death from a life-threatening illness. Background and Significance: Bereaved parents have higher mortality and morbidity rates when compared to...

The prediction of fetal death with a simple maternal blood test at 20-24 weeks: a role for angiogenic index-1 (PIGF/sVEGFR-1 ratio).

T Chaiworapongsa, R Romero, O Erez, AL Tarca… - American journal of …, 2017

… 9. Perinatology Research Branch, Eunice Kennedy Shriver National Institute of Child Health and Human Development/National Institutes of Health … Fetal death is an obstetrical syndrome that annually affects 2.4 to 3 million pregnancies worldwide, including more than 20,000 in …

Early death in pediatric cancer: remaining questions and next steps

E Furutani, C Rodriguez-Galindo, AL Green - Oncotarget, 2017

… gathering data on this cohort includes cooperative group efforts such as the Children's Oncology Group (COG) Project Every Child, which gathers … We are developing a companion COG study to interview parents of early death patients to better understand the factors involved …

Ethical considerations for the design and implementation of child injury prevention interventions: the example of delivering and installing safety equipment into the …

B Scholtes, P Schröder-Bäck - Injury Prevention, 2017

… One could argue that preventing a single child death would avert the enormous negative consequences; physical, social, psychological and economic that are associated with injury for the individual, family and society.25 Consequently, the benefits of the intervention could …

Promoting the unthinkable: Increasing organ donation awareness in paediatric hospitals, a South Australian experience

P Jones, L Sheffield - Transplant Journal of Australasia, 2017

… 6. How do you and your family now promote organ and tissue donation within your community? Diagram 2: Questions to families who gave consent to donation following the death of their child Diagram 3: Graph ANZPICR donation statistics data for 2011–2015 Page 3 …

Social Worker Experience of Fatal Child Abuse

LW Pollard - The British Journal of Social Work, 2017

… During the course, a range of professionals including coroners, paediatricians, paediatric registrars and perinatal pathologists provided insights into their roles and responsibilities in relation to the child death review process …
Epidemiological Studies of Child Maltreatment: Difficulties and Possibilities
S Janson - Pediatric Epidemiology, 2018

… In several countries in the western world, special Child Death Review Teams check every child mortality case, cases where murder has been suspected or proven or cases where a proper diagnosis has not been reached [7] …

When Men Murder Children
RP Dobash, RE Dobash - When Parents Kill Children, 2018

… The vast majority of young children killed in the family are murdered in the context of “child maltreatment,” and the cause of death is often cerebral trauma … Child maltreatment deaths in the US National Child Death Review Case Reporting System …

The path to paediatric donation after circulatory determination of death guidelines
MJ Weiss - Paediatrics & Child Health, 2017

Abstract Recently, Canada became the first country to publish paediatric specific guidelines for the practice of donation after circulatory death (pDCD). These guidelines, endorsed by the Canadian Paediatric Society, were created in response to the fact that pDCD in Canada

Protecting Children Living with Domestic Violence: Risk of Homicide in the Context of Immigration
R David, P Jaffe - When Parents Kill Children, 2018

… The major recommendations in the report suggest ways to enhance professional training on the … domestic violence on children as well as the risk of child homicide as … The Representative’s investigation concluded that all those providing protection, including social workers, need …

[HTML] Perceived social risk in medical decision-making for physical child abuse: a mixed-methods study
HT Keenan, KA Campbell, K Page, LJ Cook… - BMC Pediatrics, 2017

… Household described as chaotic, dangerous, or dysfunctional. Caregiver with criminal justice history (arrest, probation, parole, incarceration). Changing history/ blame shifting … Intimate partner violence (prior family). Caregiver negative description of child. Positive …

[PDF] 2.25 Reporting Risks to Child Safety
MQ Area - Policy, 2017

... A serious incident report involving the death of a child must be given to DET as soon as practicable but within 24 hours of the death or the time that Clare Court became aware of the death (ECSNRegs r176(2)(a)(i)). A serious ...

Doing Child-Protection Social Work with Parents: What Are the Barriers in Practice?

D Wilkins, C Whittaker - The British Journal of Social Work, 2017

... We argue that truly participatory child-protection social work requires not simply better training or different tools, but an innovation in the value base of children's services. Keywords: Participation, child protection, social work, observation, coaching Accepted: October 2017 ...

Infant Health and Future Childhood Adversity

NE Reichman, H Corman, K Noonan, ME Jiménez - Maternal and Child Health ..., 2017

... Incarceration was assessed by maternal reports of whether the child's father had spent time in prison or jail in the past 2 years, a current live-in partner spent most of the prior week in prison or jail, and she had been convicted of a crime during the past 2 years ...

Effects of parenting interventions for at-risk parents with infants: a systematic review and meta-analyses

SB Rayce, IS Rasmussen, SK Klest, J Patras... - BMJ Open, 2017

... Our objective is to systematically review the effects of parenting interventions on child development and on parent-child relationship for at-risk families with infants aged 0–12 months ... child development; infant development; parent-child relationship; systematic review ...

Subdural haemorrhage in infants: abuse or natural causes? The importance of thorough child death review

P Fleming, RW Byard - Acta Paediatrica, 2017

The designation 'abusive head trauma' (AHT) is the term preferred by the American Academy of Pediatrics for infants who have suffered intracranial injury caused by blunt trauma or violent shaking (1). It has been suggested, however, that a more general term, such as 'blunt ...

Sudden infant death syndrome, attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder and vaccines: Longitudinal population analyses

YT Yang, J Shaw - Vaccine, 2017

R McMillen, K Wilson, S Tanski, JD Klein, JP Winickoff - Pediatrics, 2018

… CONCLUSIONS: Despite dramatic progress since 2000, these trend data reveal potential areas where child health care clinicians might focus effort at the family and community level to accelerate the protection of children from tobacco smoke exposure …

The impact of the social and physical environments on parent–healthcare provider relationships when a child dies in PICU: Findings from a grounded theory study

AE Butler, B Copnell, H Hall - Intensive and Critical Care Nursing, 2017

… Keywords. Child; Death; Environment; Grounded theory; Parent-healthcare provider relationship; Paediatric intensive care unit … Participants. Twenty-six bereaved parents, representing 18 deceased children, participated in the study 6–48 months after their child’s death …

The Contribution of Neonatal Jaundice to Global Child Mortality: Findings From the GBD 2016 Study

BO Olusanya, S Teeple, NJ Kassebaum - Pediatrics, 2018

… to common practice, “hemolytic disease and other neonatal jaundice” as defined by the International Classification of Diseases, 10th Revision codes P55 to P59.9 have been separated from the omnibus category of “other neonatal disorders” under all causes of child death …

[HTML] Birth and death notification via mobile devices

L Vasudevan, N Henschke, C Glenton, S Lewin… - The Cochrane Library, 2018

… The enrolment of the child in the tracking system may be used to initiate vaccination services for the child, and to track their subsequent vaccinations. For death notifications, information related to the death may be transmitted via mobile phones as phone calls, inputs to an inter …

Forensic tools for the diagnosis of electrocution death: Case study and literature review

C Mondello, A Micali, L Cardia, A Argo, S Zerbo… - Medico-Legal Journal, 2018

Diagnosis of death by electrocution may be difficult when electric marking is not visible or unclear. Accordingly, the body of a man who appeared to have died f…

Child Mortality In The US And 19 OECD Comparator Nations: A 50-Year Time-Trend Analysis

AP Thakrar, AD Forrest, MG Maltenfort, CB Forrest - Health Affairs, 2018
… Of these, Turkey, Greece, and Portugal were excluded because of missing or low-quality data. We excluded Luxembourg because the WHO did not compile child population and death counts by age for this country. Thus …

Vaccine-preventable child deaths in New South Wales from 2005 to 2014: How much is preventable?

A Phillips, F Beard, K Macartney, J Chan, R Gilmour… - … of Paediatrics and Child …, 2018

… Methods: Child deaths in NSW from 2005 to 2014 potentially preventable by vaccination were identified from the NSW Child Death Register (maintained by the NSW Ombudsman) and the Notifiable Conditions Information Management System (NSW Health) …

Pediatric constrictive asphyxia a rare form of child abuse: A report of two cases

MEM Vester, RAC Bilo, HGT Nijs, RR van Rijn - Forensic Science International, 2018

… Differential diagnoses such as sudden infant death syndrome (SIDS) should also be considered. However, in such cases rib fractures, by definition, are absent. Rib fractures, specifically in children under the age of two years old, can be indicative of child abuse [5] ; [6]. Moreover …

Serious Case Reviews and Inquiry Reports: Investigating the Emotional, Sensory and Relational Dimensions of Child Protection

S Pinkney - New Directions in Children's Welfare, 2018

… Benbenishty (2015) argues that there were significant differences between practitioners from different countries and that this underscores the importance of context in child protection decision making. They argue that professional training should enhance practitioners …

Canberra Pool Safety Overhaul Still in Early Stages

It’s been two years since the drowning death of a 21-month-old boy in a Canberra backyard, but the ACT Government appears no closer to forcing pool owners to meet modern safety standards.

[PDF] Neonatal mortality and associated factors in newborn infants admitted to a Neonatal Care Unit

JCL Reyes, ROP Ramírez, LL Ramos, LMG Ruiz… - Arch Argent Pediatr, 2018

… Preterm birth, low birth weight, respiratory distress, Apgar score < 7, congenital malformations, and a history of < 5 antenatal care visits were associated with a higher risk for death. Key words: perinatal mortality, child mortality, neonatal mortality, neonatal respiratory distress …

Strengthening the Working Alliance for Clients With Substance Use Disorders and Child Maltreatment Histories

JR Watts, D O'Sullivan, SSJ Chatters - Journal of Mental Health Counseling, 2018
... Relationship of childhood abuse and household dysfunction to many of the leading causes of death in adults: The Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACE) Study. American Journal of Preventive Medicine, 14, 245–258 ... Child Abuse and Neglect, 32, 607–619 ...

[HTML] Maternal incarceration, child protection, and infant mortality: a descriptive study of infant children of women prisoners in Western Australia

CMM Dowell, GC Mejia, DB Preen, L Segal - Health & Justice, 2018

... The number, length and nature of offence for maternal imprisonments during infancy, were described using child birth and death dates, mother prison reception and discharge dates, sentence type, and major offence type using the Australian and New Zealand Standard Offence ...

[PDF] Māori child rearing and infant sleep practices

H Jones, CC Barber, LW Nikora, W Middlemiss - New Zealand Journal of Psychology, 2017

... cues have been over-shadowed by its negative association with sudden infant death syndrome (SIDS) and dependence on parent interaction when initiating infant sleep. In this study, we were interested in the approaches Māori parents used to put their pēpi (child, 2 months-2 ...

[HTML] Improving Perinatology Residents' Skills in Breaking Bad News: A Randomized Intervention Study

MSV Setubal, MÂRGM Antonio, EM Amaral, J Boulet - Revista Brasileira de ... , 2018

... Breaking Bad News (BBN) about a child loss is one of the hardest tasks for junior doctors, even if it is part of a perinatology ... Three of them refer to doctor-patient communication, dealing with family stress, and helping to cope with death and pain.[19] For obstetrics, one of the ...

Autopsy and Histological Findings

C Rambaud - Child Abuse, 2018

... Keywords. Child abuse Child death Shaken baby syndrome Abusive head trauma Child asphyxia New born homicides. Download fulltext PDF. 20.1 Neonates ... Injuries are dated counting backward from the date and time of the child's death ...

Post-Mortem Imaging

A Dabadie, M Proisy, E Blondiaux, MD Piercecchi-Marti... - Child Abuse, 2018

... gastrointestinal gas. The radiologist must also be able to recognize the changes produced by attempted resuscitation, so that they are not mistakenly assumed to have caused—or even contributed to—the child's death [11]. This ...

Autopsy and Histological Findings 20

C Rambaud - Child Abuse: Diagnostic and Forensic Considerations, 2018
… A rare cause of death is acute anemia due to fetomaternal hemorrhage when the child is placed on the mother's belly before the cord is cut … It is the severity of the brain lesions accompanying or secondary to the intracranial hematoma that leads to the child's death …

Medullary Astroglisis in Sudden Infant Death Syndrome Varies With Sleeping Environment: Evidence for Different Mechanisms of Death in Alone Versus Co-sleepers …

J Spinelli, RW Byard, C Van Den Heuvel… - Journal of Child Neurology, 2018

Sudden infant death syndrome remains the leading cause of death in infants under 1 year, and underlying pathophysiological mechanisms are poorly understood. The current study investigated the hypothesis that co-sleepers die more rapidly from causes such as

[PDF] Massive Pulmonary Embolism as a Rare Cause of Sudden Infant Death: Medico-legal Implications

Page 1. Massive Pulmonary Embolism as a Rare Cause of Sudden Infant Death: Medico-legal Implications … Abstract Sudden death in infants by pulmonary embolism is rarely reported and is often poorly described in literature …

Marijuana-Perinatal and Legal Issues With Use During Pregnancy.

C Krening, K Hanson - The Journal of perinatal & neonatal nursing, 2018

… requirements have not been updated to account for the movement toward legalization, risking overload of community child protection resources … of time the drug remains in the system, potential for compromised provider-patient relationships, inconsistent education and referrals …

Sudden unexpected infant death: Time for integrative national registries

K Levieux, H Patural, I Harrewijn, EB Huchet… - 2018

… In light of these facts, the French referral centers initiated a French National Child Death Review Case Reporting System ("Observatoire des Morts Inattendues du Nourrisson", OMIN), to systematically collect a large variety of clinical, radiological, autopsy, behavioral …

Risk of Death in Infants Who Have Experienced a Brief Resolved Unexplained Event: A Meta-Analysis

DA Brand, MJ Fazzari - The Journal of Pediatrics, 2018

… Instead, the evidence indicates that their child’s risk is about the same as the baseline risk of death in the overall population during the first year of life. References … Death, child abuse, and adverse neurological outcome of infants after an apparent lifethreatening event …

Rear-facing Car Seat Use for Children 18 Months of Age: Prevalence and Determinants
Car safety seats are effective in decreasing the risk of injury and death, and rear-facing car safety seats (RFCSSs) are significantly more effective than forward-facing seats in protecting children less than 24 months of age. Of these, 62% reported RFCSS use for their child.

Child death review: past, present, and future
RA Quinton - Academic forensic pathology, 2017

Abstract This article describes the current state of child death reviews (CDR) in the United States. The CDR process has evolved over almost 40 years from informal local meetings to a coordinated effort involving all 50 states. Child death review programs across the country.

Infant deaths from congenital anomalies: novel use of CDOP data
C Firth, ES Petherick, SJ Oddie - 2018

Abstract: Objective: We aimed to assess Child Death Overview Panel (CDOP) data validity, and cause of death classification, by comparison with information from a local birth cohort study (Born in Bradford, BiB), and another cause of death coding system (Causes of death and associated...

Severe Unintentional Injuries to Ohio Children: What We Should Be Addressing at Well-Child Visits
VM Wurster Ovalle, WJ Pomerantz, MA Gittelman - Clinical Pediatrics, 2018

This was a retrospective study examining severe injuries to Ohio children in order to provide pediatricians with targeted injury talking points at well visits.

Infant deaths from congenital anomalies: novel use of Child Death Overview Panel data
C Firth, E Petherick, SJ Oddie - Archives of Disease in Childhood, 2018

Objective We aimed to assess Child Death Overview Panel (CDOP) data validity, and cause of death classification, by comparison with information from a local birth cohort study (Born in Bradford, BiB), and another cause of death coding system (causes of death and associated...